

The High on Bollywood Quiz!

Across

- 2. A painter by profession, this man was also the director of a movie whose name when literally translated to English means “Fish-eyed”. This man died at the age of 95. Who is this man?
- 5. He had a “blink-and-you-miss” role in “Sarfaroosh” starring Amir Khan. This actor then went on to play the lead role in the biopic of a person in commemoration of whom is a street in UP. Name the actor.

Down

- 1. He has acted in a few Hindi films with most of them being bi-lingual (in Telugu). Among those are two movies for which the composer won the national award. This composer is also the only Indian music composer to have won the Academy awards. Name the actor?
- 3. Daughter of a famous Urdu poet cum Lyricist, she essayed the title role in a movie whose name is the exact opposite of the most famous novel authored by Mario Puzo. Who is the actress?
- 4. This actress recently recovered from a rare form of cancer. Her last silver screen appearance was in a biopic on one of the most dreaded dacoits of India and how he was finally captured. Hint: She has previously starred in an Academy award nominated movie.